OUTLINES.

The Senate passes the Agricultural Appropriation Bill——Senator Rayner introduces his resolution regarding the banishment of Major Stewart by the President. He will speak on it today. Vice President Fairbanks was not in the Senate yesterday to receive congratulations on his 56th birthday. The House passed several minor bills——It is expected that the Rayner resolution as to the banishment of Major Stewart will be discussed in the Senate today. It calls for a full statement of all the facts connected with this case——Twenty-five persons were injured by a rear-end collision of elevated street cars in New York last night. There was no serious damage however——Republican leaders in Congress are at work on a plan to prevent any break at the Chicago convention. Conferences are being held at the White House with Senators and members of the House who were at first opposed to Secretary Taft's nomination——Atlanta suffered from another serious fire which began at 9 o'clock last night——The grand jury in Washington returns a true bill against Congressman Heflin for the assault with a deadly weapon on the negro in the street car on March 17th ——Congressman Lilley refuses to produce before the House Committee the private letters called for by it. The matter will be reported to the House for its action——Excavations on the premises of the Gunness farm have ceased for a while and the authorities have turned their attention to investigating the facts so far disclosed—— New York markets: Money on call easy 1 3-4 to 2per cent., ruling rate 1 3-4, closing bid 1 3-4, offered at 2, time loans quiet and easy. Flour barely steady. Wheat weak, No. 2 red 1.03 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2 72 elevator. Oats steady. Rosin easy. Turpentine steady 46c. Cotton closed steady 25 points higher, middling uplands 10.90, middling gulf 11.15.

Whose fault was it that the New Jersey delegates to our State convention arrived just one year ahead of time?

The Durham Herald pertinently remarks that "the original prohibitionists are wondering what has become of their party."

The New York American says Mr. Roosevelt regrets that third term pledge. We do not believe it. He would not let anybody know it if he did so.

Mr. Bryan realizes his strength in one respect. He knows if he cannot be elected he can keep any other Democrat out of the office. He found out in 1904 that he had this power.

It is said Senator Jeffries Davis is not as proud of exhibiting that gold headed cane as he was before that occasion when he suddenly left it on the street at an Arkansas town.

That report about Bella Guinness, of LaPorte, being still alive, was so soon knocked in the head we do not suppose another news faker will dare attempt to start a similar sensation.

The papers are making a joke of that mistake somebody made in sending a New Jersey delegation down to our city on the 1st. We don't suppose the New Jersey delegates thought it a joke.

Wonder if Congressman Hobson is backing that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company which is touring Japan? It is said to be stirring up immense popular animosity against the United States.

The Tarboro Leader thinks it will be a hot day on which the Democratic convention will meet in Charlotte, but it makes the consoling remark that there will be a plenty of ice on hand with a full supply of "standard family medicines."

The Atlanta Constitution says there is a gubernatorial contest on hand in Georgia, but Hoke Smith says there is not—no contest on his part for the nomination, but only a little effort on his part to see how big he can make his majority.

In the primary to be held in the county next Thursday interest centers on the Legislative ticket. It seems to be generally understood that, with few exceptions, the Prohibitionists will vote for Carr for the Senate and Kellum for the House, while the Antis will support Empie for the Senate and Morton for the House.

We suppose the reason so many Republican Congressmen object to the passage of the Appalachian and White Mountain forest reserve bill is that they expect to have themselves to take to the tall timber about the "Tuesday after the first Monday in November" next. Voting for that bill is too much of a reminder to them of the expected.

NEED OF LIGHTSHIP

Accentuated By Grounding of Large Steamer on Frying Pan Saturday.

Library of Congress

VESSEL WA... SOUTH

Hard and Fast for Nearly 24 Hours. Business Men Much Interested in Effort of Mr. Sprunt—Encouraging News.

The need of an adequate lightship on the knuckle of Frying Pan Shoals to take the place of the one rather arbitrarily removed a few months ago and stationed thirteen miles further out to sea, was sharply accentuated Saturday afternoon by the grounding of another large steamer with a valuable cargo between the curvature of the shoal and the former station of the beacon.

Reference is made to the British steamer Kyleakin, 1,976 tons, Captain Lennox, bound from Baltimore to Tampico, with a cargo of coke, which grounded on Frying Pan Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock and remained there in a helpless and very dangerous position until Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when she was hauled off by the tug Blanche and the steamer Compton, the former in command of Captain Dosher and the latter in comman of Captain H. Adkins. She anchored off the bar until yesterday morning to ascertain the damage, if any that had been done, and proceeded after acknowledgment of services to pilots and tow boat owners. Competent marine men without regard to their opinion as to the proper place for the lightship, say undoubtedly that the steamer's narrow escape from very serious damage or perhaps a total loss, was due entirely to the absence of a light to mark that important danger spot for vessels passing north and south along this coast.

Coming close upon the visit of Mr. James Sprunt to the Lighthouse Board in Washington and the acceptance of his recommendations to the commander-in-chief of this service, the experience of this vessel should have very great weight with Congress in providing at once the appropriation of $115,000 asked for in the interest of the commerce of the Nation. It is good to know that the commercial interests of Wilmington have taken hold of this matter and will use every influence to see that the new lightship is established. Yesterday morning the following telegram was sent to Senator Lee S. Overman, who introduced the bill Saturday at the behest of Mr. Sprunt, viz:

"Wilmington, N. C., May 11th 1908.
"Hon. Lee S. Overman, Senate Chamber, Washington, D. C.

"Our people are profoundly grateful to you and to Mr. Godwin for your faithful efforts to restore the Frying Pan Shoal Lightship. Another large steamer with a valuable cargo has just been reported ashore near the knuckle of Frying Pan, from whence our Lightship was recently removed. This accentuates our contention sustained by the technical knowledge of Captain Quinan of the Revenue Cutter "Seminole," of the imperative necessity for immediate action by Congress for our relief.

"Please inform our other representatives and wire us if we shall telegraph Senator Frye, or any others whose influence may be effective in our behalf.

"W. E. SPRINGER,
"Mayor of Wilmington.
"J. A. TAYLOR,
"President of the Chamber of Commerce.

"JAMES SPRUNT,
"Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage."

Early in the afternoon came the following telegram to Mr. Sprunt:

"Washington, D. C., May 11 1908.
"Mr. James Sprunt, Wilmington, N. C.

"Glad inform you had our $115,000 Lightship Frying Pan Shoals included in appropriation bill today.

"LEE S. OVERMAN."

This was quickly followed by still another telegram to Mayor Springer from Senator Overman:

"Washington, D. C., May 11, 1908.
"Hon. Wm. E. Springer and Others, Wilmington, N. C.

"Appropriation $115,000 Lightship Frying Pan Shoals has been included in Senate Appropriation Bill. Will help Godwin hold it in House.

"LEE S. OVERMAN."

This is very gratifying information to the people of Wilmington generally and the Star is assured that they are profoundly grateful to Mr. Sprunt, Mr. Overman, Mr. Godwin and all others who have taken the matter up in such aggressive and business-like manner.

The Grand Commandery.

A party of prominent members of the Knights Templar left yesterday for Kinston, N. C., to attend the Grand Commandery sessions which will continue this week. Among those who left during the day, all members of the Grand Commandery, were Messrs. J. C. Munds, U. M. Robinson, M. S. Willard, Cuthbert Martin, C. C. Brown and R. H. Pickett.

BISHOP'S PRONOUNCEMENT

Strong Address on Prohibition Question in St. James Sunday Night by Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D. The Audience.

Bishop Robert Strange, of the East Carolina Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to an audience composed of men only in St. James' Church Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock, delivered an earnest, eloquent and intensely practical address upon the moral issues involved in the present State prohibition campaign, declaring himself in no uncertain terms in favor of prohibition.

The Bishop prefaced his remarks with the statement that he had given much earnest, prayerful consideration to the measure since it was first presented and that while the bill was not perhaps what he would have it in all respects, as between the perpetuation of the open saloon method of dealing with the traffic and prohibition in the ordinary acceptance of the term, he would choose the latter. He quoted Biblical authority for his position and declared that without the triumph of prohibition at this time when the issue was squarely drawn, he believed that conditions would be ten-fold worse should the bill fail.

The larger part of the address was devoted to answering six objections to the adoption of prohibition, however giving those of a contrary opinion credit for the courage of their convictions and counselling others in favor of prohibition to demean themselves accordingly. That the adoption of prohibition would destroy the revenue of the schools, he took up first as the weakest argument against the bill. He was curious to know why this revenue from liquor had not been turned into the general fund all the while and could not understand just why the proceeds from the traffic, "blood money" as he characterized it, should be turned to the education of little children. That the law was sumptuary he answered by defining sumptuary laws as those that prescribed the cut of one's garments and what one should eat and not laws that prevented the toleration of a condition that worked an injury to others. Laws preventing the open sale of cocaine, chloral, etc., were not regarded sumptuary. Taking up personal liberty, he said that the only human species that enjoyed personal liberty was the savage that roamed the jungle; that wherever civilization began, there commenced at once an abridgement of one's liberty when it resulted in the hurt of others. Answering the question that prohibition doesn't prohibit and declaring this the one point with which he contended longest in making up his mind on the question, he said that while prohibition doesn't prohibit, it decreases and removes the temptation from the young who have not contracted the habit. There would be blind tigers, he would admit, but the evil would be reduced; especially was this true of the negroes, the "child race," as he described them. The law prevented the sale of liquor to a minor; it should as well prevent the sale to this "child race," but this being impossible, prohibition offered the next best thing.

The bishop also referred to the baneful influence of the saloon in politics and expressed the belief that the closing of the saloons would result in a higher citizenship in that men would take an interest in the affairs of government and would strive to see that the law was enforced. The argument that prohibition wouldn't prohibit it was a confession of weakness on the part of men who had resisted bravely the encroachment of the crown at Moore's Creek and by the men who fought and were crushed by overwhelming odds at Fisher.

The audience which heard the Bishop was not as large as might have been expected on account of special sermons at some other churches, but those who heard him were earnest, thoughtful men, evidently seeking information upon a question upon which men are greatly divided here. The address is also expected to be the keynote of the action of the Diocesan Convention at Elizabeth City next week on the question of prohibition.

JUDGE ROBINSON SPEAKS.

Heard by Large Audience Last Night at the Court House.

Ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinhon delivered a forceful and characteristic address in favor of State prohibition at the Court House last night and was heard by an audience which more than taxed the seating capacity of the large auditorium.

Judge Robinson was introduced by Herbert McClammy, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, and held his audience to the very last. It was an address to men only but there was nothing to offend the delicate sensibilities of anyone. The judge has a style all his own and an attempt to quote him would be without effect. He send his arguments home very much after the manner of the late Sam P. Jones. He was heard with interest and entertainment and his sallies of wit and humor would fill a book. He kept his large audience in the best of humor and while no very large number of votes may have been made by his address, his audience is deeply grateful to him for an evening of rare pleasure.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

Extension of Capital City Street Railway Goes on Despite The Panic.

JEWELERS ASSOCIATION

Meets This Week—Wilmington Man Chairman of Reception Committee. Celebration of Memorial Day. Exchange of Courts.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 11.—A large squad of laborers began the work of constructing the Martin street extension of the Raleigh street railway this morning, this being the last of the several extensions pledged to the city authorities some months ago by the Raleigh Electric Co., in the extension of its charter and the granting of important franchise concessions.

When this line is completed the street cars will penetrate every section of the city, there being no city in all the South with a more complete street car service.

The North Carolina Retail Jeweler's Association meets in Raleigh Wednesday and Thursday of this week and a very full attendance is expected. R. C. Bernau, of Greensboro, is president and Frank Jolly, Raleigh, secretary. J. T. Burke, of Wilmington, is chairman of the reception committee and a member of the executive committee.

An order is made by Governor Glenn for an exchange of courts between Judge J. L. Webb and Judge Fred Moore, whereby Judge Moore will hold the regular term of Superior court at Greensboro beginning June 15th and on the same day Judge Webb will convene the special term of Cleveland court at Shelby, his home town. This will be the first term of court to be held in the new Cleveland court house, one of the best and most commodious in the State.

The Buchanan Machine Co., of Charlotte is chartered with $25,000 capital for the manufacture of engines and all kinds of machinery and general machinery repair work. The incorporators are W. F. Buchanan, B. L. Buchanan and H. E. Buchanan.

"The Christian Spirit in the Confederate Army" was the theme of an eloquent oration Sunday afternoon by the Rev. E. A. Osborne, of Charlotte, of the observance of Memorial Day in Raleigh. Weather conditions were ideal and an immense crowd gathered in the Confederate plat at the cemetery for the service which was under the auspices of the Ladies Memorial Association and the Daughters of the Confederacy, who had on Saturday served the usual Memorial day luncheon to the Veterans on the lawn in Capitol Square under the most pleasing conditions.

It develops in connection with the Memorial Day celebration that 23 veterans, members of the L. O'B. Branch Camp have died during the past year. Eight crosses of honor were awarded at the close of exercises Sunday afternoon.

The Johnson Pettigrew Chapter of Daughters of the Confederacy will hold on Friday of this week a May Festival the proceeds of which will go to swell the fund for the Wyatt monument. Mrs. Josephus Daniels and Mrs. Herbert Jackson as respectively president of the chapter and chairman of the central committee, have the undertaking in hand.

TRACK THIS AFTERNOON

Fine Racing Matinee at Old Fair Grounds This Afternoon.

The best racing of the season is promised in the matinee this afternoon at the Old Fair Grounds track under the auspices of the Wilmington Driving Association. The track is in excellent condition and the races will begin at 3:30 sharp. The admission is free and both ladies and gentlemen are most cordially invited.

In the 2:30 trotting and pacing will be seen Traveler, driven by McEachern; Queen, driven by Palmer and Billie S., driven by Daniels.

The 2:35 trotting and pacing will introduce Hooker, driven by Mills; Paul L., driven by Palmer, and Winton Boy, driven by Daniels.

The third race will be in the 2:40 trotting class and the entries are Pat, driven by Palmer; Hidro, by Hicker; Wilkes Boy, by Kidd; Sir Hanna, by Wrede; Black Hawk, by Woolard, and My Own, by Sidbury.

FOR ACADEMY ATTACHES

Splendid Vaudeville Benefit Given Last Night at Theatre Enjoyed by Large Audience—Features of the Bill.

Vaudeville extraordinary held the boards at the Academy of Music last night. There was light vaudeville and polite vaudeville, a merry galaxy of bright comedy and tuneful music that rounded out a first-class entertainment given for the benefit of the attaches of the house who have labored faithfully and unceasingly to make the past season what it was possible to make it in the way of a theatrical success.

The action was quick and snappy and every attache of the house bent his or her every energy to make of the production a great success. The Majestic Theatre offered a splendid attraction in the Hill-Edmonds Trio, who put on an excellent comedy sketch and kept the audience laughing all the while. Then there was Mrs. Percy Wells, in illustrated songs, as only she can sweetly sing them. Then Mr. Wells went on for a daring aerial revolving act on the trapeze, both he and Mrs. Wells with the compliments of the Bijou. Mr. F. G. King gave an old plantation sketch that was of the professional type, while Mr. Henry Angel in a comedy skit was not one whit behind. Wilson & Daniels did a very clever buck and wing dance and Master William Penny was heard to fine advantage in two songs and a reading. He was par excellence. As a grand finale, the stage crew came on with an intimate view of how things are handled behind the scenes, making two elaborate settings and a shift out in full view of the audience. Their work was perfect and interesting. The whole show was well worth the price and gave pleasure to an audience which large should have been larger.

The attaches desire to publicly thank the house managers, the performers and everyone who in the least contributed to the splendid success of the appearance.

NEWS OF Y. M. C. A.

"One Hundred Club" Completes Canvas Tonight—Bible Study.

It is hoped to have a large attendance of members of the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8:30 o'clock when the efforts of the various teams from the "One Hundred Club" will culminate. Members of the teams especially are invited to be present.

The last meeting of the Bible Study Club was held last evening and it was the most largely attended meeting of the year. A very interesting history of the Club was read by Mr. K. W. Price and there were addresses by Secretary Kettle, Messrs. W. M. Cumming, W. W. Koch J. W. Taylor, Jos. W. Little, W. H. Sprunt and S. M. Boatwright. The Club has done excellent work under the instruction of Dr McClure during the season.

RYAN-LADUE MATCH.

Charleston and Wilmington Champions on Mat—Preliminaries.

Tomorrow night Tommie Ryan and Ladue meet on the mat at the old Red Men's Hall, on South Front street. It promises to be an interesting and hard-fought struggle with the odds about even. Ladue is expected to reach the city today.

A side feature of the match will be a six-round sparring event between Douglass Yarborough, and Ed Thompson and Ed Brewer and Kid Buie will do a preliminarly stunt on the mat. The prices run from 25c to $1.00.

Committee of Telegraphers.

A committee from the Railway Telegraphers on the three divisions of the Atlantic Coast Line are in Wilmington for conferences which will begin with the officials of the road today with reference to certain adjustments desired in connection with the recent nine-hour law which went into effect on all the lines of the country. In the delegation here are Messrs. J. H. Williams, Wilson; F. A. Boswell, Black Creek; P. J. Heath, Magnolia, J. R. Patrick, Bennettsville; E. L. Porter, Patterson, Ga. The delegation is stopping at The Orton.

Aldermen Confer Tonight.

Mayor Springer announced yesterday that there would be a conference of the Board of Aldermen at his office at the City Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. This will be for the purpose of receiving from the various committees their estimates for the coming fiscal year with a view of arranging a budget to be submitted to the Board of Audit and Finance. It is hoped to have all members of the Board present for this important conference.

In Honor of Their Comrade.

While at the cemetery on Sunday afternoon for the Memorial Day exercises, before returning to the city the Wilmington Light Infantry proceeded in a body to the grave of their late comrade, Robert H. McKoy, and fired a salute in honor of the dead. It was the observance of a pretty custom by the command and was especially fitting on Sabbath afternoon.

CONFEDERATE DEAD

Beautiful Exercises Sunday Afternoon in Oakdale in Observance of Memorial Day.

ADDRESS BY J. O. CARR, ESQ.

Eloquent and Pleasing Oration by Prominent Wilmington Attorney —Other Features of an Impressive Nature.

Confederate Memorial Day was most fittingly observed Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the base of the handsome Confederate monument in beautiful Oakdale cemetery. The weather conditions were ideal and the attendance was unusually large.

The exercises were in every way most appropriate and pleasing, an added solemnity having been given to the occasion from the fact that the ceremonies came on the quiet of a Sabbath afternoon. The long procession of the Veterans, nearly seventy in number in charge of Commander James I. Metts; George Davis Camp, Sons of Veterans, the Wilmington Light Infantry, the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Children of the Confederacy, citizens and others, headed by the Delgado Band, formed promptly at 4:45 o'clock in charge of Chief Marshal John E. Crow and his aides, proceeding slowly and in order to the entrance to the monument, where the military opened ranks and stood at attention while the ladies and veterans passed through and occupied seats inside the enclosure.

The exercises took place from an improvised stand to the right of the monument, which was appropriately draped in honor of the occasion. As the audience was being seated the Mozart Quartette, composed of Messrs. J. A. Fettle, alto; R. H. Morris, trombone, and C. W. Hollowbush and E. C. Craft, cornetist, rendered Gottschalk's "Last Hope."

The large audience was called to order by Mr. John E. Crow, the chief marshal, who served most acceptably as master of ceremonies. Prayer was offered by the Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., the chaplain, and upon its conclusion a double mixed quartette composed of Mrs. F. A. Muse, Miss Carrie Baker, Mrs. J. D. Edwards, Miss Maude Bulluck and Messrs. Charles Dushan, J. G. Stanley, A. S. Holden and H. E. O'Keefe, rendered with impressive effect "Soldiers of Christ Arise."

The orator of the day, James O. Carr, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, was introduced by Mr. Crow in graceful and very complimentary language. Mr. Carr's address was eloquent and pleasing, especially fitted to an occasion of the kind. He was listened to with rapt attention and received the unmistakable approval of his hearers. Upon his presentation by Mr. Crow, he said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: We are again confronted with the memories of the past generation, and we have put aside the cares of business and have met here in commemoration of the deeds of those who made the American Civil War a most memorable one. This forty-fifth anniversary of the death of one of the greatest military commanders in history reminds us again of the heroism of the Confederacy and impresses us with the truth of the statement of Napoleon when he said: "It was not the Roman Army that conquered Gaul, but Caesar; it was not the Carthaginian Army that made Rome tremble, but Hannibal; it was not the Macedonian Army that reached the Indus, but Alexander; it was not the French Army that carried the war to the Weser and the Inn, but Turenne; it was not the Prussian Army, which for seven years defended Prussia against the three greatest powers of Europe, but Frederick the Great." This was a strong expression by a great military commander of the idea that marshalling an army to successful warfare depends entirely upon the man at the head of the fighting column, which is highly demonstrated in the leadership of Lee and Jackson and that great host of Confederate Generals, who fought with such success under such overwhelming obstacles.

But it is my purpose to turn aside from the general at the head of the army to the man in the ranks, and to speak to you briefly of "the private soldier as a type"—the man who carried the musket, who fought the battles for the South, and who suffered every possible hardship with wonderful fortitude and endurance, and without complaint. The characteristics which especially mark the Southern man and which constituted the character of every soldier in the Confederate Army have been forcibly and truthfully delineated by the late lamented Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, who after a life time of strife with the people whom he was finally forced to love, said: "Although my life, politically and personally, has been a life of almost constant strife with the leaders of the Southern people, yet as I grow older, I have learn-

THE SOUTH SEEKS NO CHARITY.

The Manufacturers' Record, in an article of criticism on the recent performance of the Cosmopolitan club of New York, took occasion to comment on the fact that part in the disgusting proceedings was taken by men connected with the Ogden Movement, inaugurated, so said, for the advance in education and enlightenment of the people of the South.

The Richmond News-Leader takes The Manufacturers' Record up and defends the Ogden Movement, and in connection with the subject matter discussed by the Baltimore paper says:

"The Manufacturers' Records' creed for the South seems to be that it should love, honor, cherish and obey corporations which work the people for all they are worth and hate, despise, discourage and repudiate Mr. Ogden and his associates, who are giving us money to educate our children and helping us without asking return."

As to the Record's creed being that the South "should love, honor, cherish and obey corporations which work the people for all they are worth" we have nothing to do and will say nothing here, because we know that paper is fully competent to defend itself against such a charge and needs no help from us. We will only say, parenthetically, that such attitude on the part of The Record is news to us.

It is to the last clause in The News Leader's declaration above quoted to which we wish to call attention, in which it speaks of Mr. Ogden and his associates "who are giving us"—the people of the South—"money to educate our children and helping us, without asking return."

Has that declaration by an advocate of the Ogden Movement of the intents and purpose of that movement a pleasing sound to its proposed beneficiaries, the people of the South who are doing their utmost, taxing themselves to the last limit to educate their children at their own expense and who are cheerfully bearing the burden?

Do the people of the South admit themselves to be objects of charity to the people of the North or of any section of this country or of the whole world?

When at the close of the war between the States our people found their country devastated, poverty-stricken, the people almost starving they looked for no help to be given "without asking for return" to keep the wolf from the door. They went to work to help themselves and they astonished the world by the results of their energy and perseverance against repeated adversities. They repaired the ruin and conquered the poverty thrust upon them by these same Ogden Movement people. They did this by their own indomitable will and untiring exertions. They drove the wolf from the door. They made the South, in her rapid development of wealth the admiration of the whole world and the envy of many of our own country who should have rejoiced with our people in their rapid recuperation.

If our people of the South were able, by their own exertions to do thus, why should they now, in the language of The News-Leader, feel frateful to those of the Ogden Movement who are "giving us money to educate our children and helping us without asking return?"

The Northern manufacturer and developer is welcomed whenever he brings his money here to invest in financial ventures, or by his labor to help develop our resources, but he does it for the purpose and with the expectation of getting remunerative returns on the capital or labor invested. It is never an act of charity. It is always a purely business transaction which is expected to make its return of so much per centum on the investment. This kind of aid the South welcomes. But she is not and never will be a pauper, seeking aid which asks no return.

AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

There will be a notable assemblage in Washington City this week—that of a number of governors of the States and prominent men accompanying each executive. They are to gather at the White House at the invitation of President Roosevelt, to hold a conference with him on the subject of the country's national resources and their development. Forest reserves and improvement of navigable streams will take precedence in the discussion, the two things deemed most important in the development of the nation's resources. It is expected that there will be at this conference the governors of 44 States and Territories, besides a large number of persons in private life, the leading men and chief advisers of these State executives in matters pertaining to the progress and development of their States. In his invitation to these State officials and other prominent men to meet with him in this conference President Roosevelt says as to the object of the meeting:

"It is the plain duty of us, who, for the moment, are responsible, to take inventory of the natural resources which have been handed down to us, to forecast the needs of the future and so handle the great sources of our prosperity as not to destroy in advance all hope of the prosperity of our descendants. Facts which I cannot gainsay, force me to believe that the conservation of our natural resources is the most weighty question now before the people of the United States. If this is so the proposed conference, which is the first of its kind, will be among the most important gatherings in our history in its effect upon the welfare of all our people."

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

The latest news from Washington is that Mr. Fairbanks, seeing that there is no chance for himself or any other candidate in the combine to defeat Secretary Taft, has decided to become a candidate for renomination for Vice President. He is doing a dangerous thing in trying to "swap horses amid stream." He is likely to be as unsuccessful in this as he has been in his former aspirations, for it is not likely that the Taft men will choose as his running mate one of the men who has done all in his power to prevent the nomination of that gentleman so long as he thought there was any chance of doing so. It is to be supposed that the Taft faction had chosen its man for the second place long before Mr. Fairbanks had given up its fight against him. We do not believe there is anything in the report. We give the Vice President credit for having too much sense to think he could make any such deal, even if he was inclined to do so.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Out of the 980 delegates that will go to Chicago. 726 had been chosen at the close of last week, and Taft had about 45 per cent. of them, according to the New York Tribune and other papers that have at least a friendly feeling for the war secretary.

—Senator Foraker is working the negro issue for all there is in it, and declares to the Senate that there must be "action on the Brownsville affair, or no adjournment." The Republicans are up against a tough proposition and find they cannot serve two masters They must choose between Teddy and the negro voters.—Newbern Sun.

—Those counties in Virginia that have recently voted dry are having the usual experience with "soft" drinks that make drunk come. Rev. enue officers from Washington, accompanied by expert chemists, have seen sent down to look into the case. "Amberine" is one of the decoctions and it is said to be able to make a man drunk quicker than beer. Liquor is like a turtle; it dies hard and will live even after its head is cut off.—Greensboro Record.

—Speaker Cannon says if a "reasonable number" of Republican members request it, he will let the free pulp paper bill be discussed in caucus. Inasmuch as a majority of the Republicans have given pledges to vote for free pulp, the fact that they now are dumb before Cannon is evidence that they promised the newspapers one thing at home and their party so belongs to the trust that they must break their pledges.—News and Observer.

—The anti-Bryan managers will doubtless be encourage by the success of the Johnson forces in Minnesota to count on building up an opposition in the Denver convention strong enough to prevent Mr. Bryan's nomination under the two-thirds rule. The Democratic National convention will consist of 1,008 delegates, if six delegates apiece are seated, as is customary, from the territories and the insular dependencies. To prevent a nomination by a two- thirds vote 337 votes will be required. Where are these 337 votes to come from?—New York Tribune.

—We have depressing news from Caswell, where the most interesting campaign in the State is in progress. The register of deeds, an unfaithful servant, bought a typewriter for his office and paid for it out of the people's money. He has had the effrontery, after this act of extravagance, which amounts almost to a breach of trust, to offer for re-election; and would you believe it?—the word comes that he and the typewriter are going to win out. This would be a distressing proof of the degeneracy of the electorate, become so sodden and insensate as to be indifferent to the squandering of the public money by reckless and defiant officials. It is not surprising that Caswell is in a quiver of excitement, unequaled in intensity by that which prevailed in Duplin a few months ago growing out of the controversy about whether the county should have a one-story jail or a two-story jail and resulting in a primary on the subject.—Charlotte Observer.

—A year or more ago it was the fashion to display the most extreme sort of hostility towards railroads. One of the results of this agitation was the enactment of the Hepburn railroad rate act, which, among other things, prevented the railroads from issuing passes. Another clause of the bill, known as the commodity clause, forbade railroads under the severest penalties to own or handle commodities for their own account, except such as were needed in their business as common carriers. Following the lead of Congress, many State Legislatures enacted all manner of anti-railroad laws, most of which have since been declared unconstitutional or have been enjoined by the courts. It is loudly claimed that this craze for hostile railroad legislation had much to do with precipitating the recent financial panic and that it put a stop to railroad developments which have led to the loss of employment by hundreds of thousands of laborers. Although the Hepburn bill passed nearly two years ago, the Department of Justice has not yet seen its way clear to enforce the so-called commodity clause of the act, and certainly shows no signs of enforcing it in a hasty or strenuous way. Efforts have been made in Congress to amend the law so as to give the railroads several years more time in which to dispose of their holdings of coal mines and other outside property. So strong is the popular feeling against railroads, however, that neither the Senate nor the House has found courage enough to disturb the commodity clause.—New Orlean Picayune.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is perctly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables.

What Stove for Summer?

Nothing adds to kitchen convenience in summer weather like a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. Anything that any stove can do the "New Perfection" will do, and do it better. Bakes, roasts, boils, toasts; heats the wash water and the sad irons, and does it without dissipating its heat through the room to your discomfort. The actually keeps the kitchen cool—actually makes it comfortable for you while doing the family cooking, because, unlike the coal range, its heat is directed to one point only—right under the kettle. Made in three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION

The Rayo LAMP affords a mellow light that is very grateful to tired eyes—a perfect student or family lamp. Brass, nickel plated, hence more durable than other lamps.

ed not only to respect and esteem them, but to love the great qualities which belong to my fellow citizens of the Southern States. They are a noble race. We may well take pattern from them in some of the great virtues which make up the strength as they make the glories of the Free State. Their love of home; their chivalrous respect for women; their courage; their delicate sense of honor; their constantcy, which can abide by an opinion or a purpose or an interest for their State through adversity and prosperity, through years and through generations, are things by which the murcureal North may take a lesson."

These characteristics are inherent in the life of the South, and find their origin in the heredity and environment of the Southern people. Originally the South was settled by the cavaliers beyond the seas, whose ancestors were soldiers and statesmen, and who for generations had controlled the destinies of their countries, but who had been shorn of their religious and political liberties and had sought refuge in the South, where a wider field of peace, prosperity and happiness was open to them. They were the flower of Europe, and many of them were educated in the best colleges and universities. Out of this pilgrimage to the Southern part of America there grew up a social and educational system, which for its charm and good influences is unparalleled in the history of the world. Through generations of active life and independence, in an atmosphere of this kind, the Southerner established homes and institutions worth fighting for and acquired that self-respect and self-reliance which characterized the Confederate Soldier through the entire Civil War.

Every soldier who fights to success in battle is impelled by some controlling motive. In Russia this motive is the fear of a tyranical power; in Germany it is a part of the training of the youth; in England it is the pride of the soldier in his government; and in the South it was the love for home and for those institutions and principles of liberty, which our ancestors had won at the point of the bayonet at Moore's Creek, Guilford Court House, King's Mountain and Yarktown; and it is to these established rights and principles, won through fire and sword, that we must look for the growth of those elements of character which especially distinguished the Southern soldier. A man may be as brave as a lion from mere brutality—he may be as gentle as a woman because of the lack of those masculine elements of character which constitute manhood; but he who possesses a combination of bravery and gentleness, which constitutes courage, is a true representative of that class of characters of which the Confederate Soldier is a type. Those elements were dominant in the highly trained Lee and Jackson and in the private soldier who faced death and fought savagely until a victory was won, and then turned to the defeated foe with offices of kindness and benevolence. The volunteer soldier who went to the front in the Confederate Army was of this type and not a hireling. He was the head of a family and took his sons with him; he was an educated farmer, a merchant, a lawyer, a doctor, a college professor, and defended his State in person and not by proxy. He was a highly intelligent being, who entered the army without military training or knowledge of military tactics, but with a high sense of a duty to be performed; he was merely a volunteer in the service of the State and went to his duty willingly. A trained army—so essential in war—was unknown to the Confederacy in 1861; but the private soldier was the product of three centuries of self dependence and self government, and he possessed intuitively those elemnts of character which count for more than training. Not only was the Confederate Army not trained at the opening of the war, but it lacked discipline until the end. An intelligent being chafes under discipline, and on the march or in a charge the Southern Army was not an orderly fighting machine and is said to have often been as crooked as a ram's horn; but the courage of the individual soldier and his powers in demoralizing the enemy were unexcelled. As a scout, when acting on his own responsibility, he was at his best; in confusion, when orders could not be heard and commands were impossible he did his most effective fighting; in retreat he knew what the counter-stroke meant and turned to it with an eagerness, which insured success, while the less intelligent soldier would have been demoralized and around the camp fires he discussed with accuracy the plans of the generals, which he was supposed to be ignorant of. What the Southern Soldier lost in discipline he more than ganied in individual action, and his self-reliance and intelligence outweighed what the Russian gets from fear, what the German gets from training and what the Englishman gets from pride and tradition. Lee himself said of his soldiers that he believed the army would be invincible if properly organized and officered, and added, that "There never were such men in an army before. They will go anywhere and do anything if properly led. But there is the difficulty—proper commanders." It is almost universally admitted that the South produced the greatest Generals known to modern warfare, and the greatest of these declared that the trouble was the lack of proper commanders, and not the inefficiency of the private soldier.

But before I have finished I shall speak one word of another soldier, who did not fight in the ranks of the army, and whose name does not appear upon the muster rolls of the war—a soldier who was commanded by no general and whose captain was her own heart and conscience: I refer to the Mother and the wife and the sweatheart of the man behind the gun. The women of the South by their en-

SURE CURE FOR BABY'S ITCH.

Oil of Wintergreen in External Wash Produces Remarkable Results—How to Get Prescription.

Is your baby burning up with torturing itching Eczema? Is he tearing his tender skin to shreds vainly trying to scratch away the terrible agony?

Are you or any member of your family suffering with an aggravating persistent skin disease?

Use oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., in D. D. D. Prescription. It will give instant relief.

Oil of wintergreen, this simple everyday oil of wintergreen, mixed with other healing herbs and vegetable ingredients, cures the worst forms of skin disease, and the remedy is so easy to apply, just an external liquid wash. No drugs or medicines, just a few drops of the wash applied to the itching, burning spots, then instant relief. The instant the oil is applied the itch is gone.

To secure the proper results from this soothing curative remedy, it is necessary to use oil of wintergreen compounded with other mild ingredients. This compound known as D. D. D. Prescription, not only relieves but permanently cures. Just try D. D. D. Prescription. Try a few drops and note the relief. We positively vouch for the merits of this remedy. Robt. R. Bellamy, Front and Market, Wilmington, N. C.

—There was but one case before the Mayor yesterday, which is extraordinary for a Monday session of the court. Davy Jones, colored, for being drunk and disorderly at Fourth and Harnett streets, was fined $10 and costs. The arrest was by Officer R. L. Rouse.

—All parties who have received invitations to the banquet to be given Saturday evening in connection with the Laymen's Movement are requested to send their acceptances to Mr. Edwin Kettle at once in order that seats may be provided for the meeting and banquet. It will be necessary to know not later than Wednesday how many will attend the banquet. This applies to both people in the country and in the city.

—All wholesale business houses are earnestly requested to allow their traveling men to come in Friday afternoon so as to attend the social and banquet at the Hotel Tarrymoore Friday night. Committees will call with tickets on both Front and Water street merchants today and next day and will expect one or more from each firm. The salesmen will be both entertained and benefitted by association with their large number of brethren from all over the State on this occasion.

Compliment to the Principal.

As a token of their appreciation of Miss M. E. Cook, the very capable and efficient principal of their institution, the teachers and pupils of Union School yesterday with due formality presented to her a very handsome gold neck chain. Miss Cook was taken entirely by surprise at this expression from those with whom she has been associated so pleasantly during the past term and thanked the donors profoundly for their thoughtfulness and evidence of good will.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequaled 50c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

Query.

If "Prohibition don't prohibit" why do the distillers in Indiana and the wholesale liquor dealers in Baltimore fight prohibition in North Carolina?

FUNERAL OF BOY

Remains of Victim of Saturday's Tragedy Laid to Rest Sunday.

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends impressive funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, No. 217 Cowan street, over the remains of little John Luther Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Little, who was drowned on Saturday. The services were by Rev. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church, and were concluded at the grave in beautiful Bellevue cemetery where the remains were laid to rest. The pallbearers were Messrs. H. S. Allen, E. T. Williams, J. T. Fergus and H. W. Keen. The Star is requested to publish the following from the sorrowing parents:

To Editor of Morning Star:

A card of appreciation to our kind friends and the general public for their kindness shown us in the sad hour of our bereavement in the death of our only child, John Luther, which took place on the 9th instant, so suddenly and unexpectedly to his loving papa and mama, who are almost heartbroken at the great loss and trying ordeal through which they have passed.

Yours with thanks,
MR. and MRS. T. J. LITTLE.

Their Infant Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Thomas have the sympathy of a great many friends in the death of their little son, Robert Lee, aged 16 months, which occurred at the family home, No. 707 Grace street, Sunday morning after a lingeriug illness. The remains were taken on the southern train the same afternoon to Varnville, S. C., where the interment took place yesterday. Short funeral services were conducted Sunday from the residence by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D.

Excursion Yesterday to Beach.

Pupils of the eighth grade, members of the graduating class, if you please, at Hemenway School, yesterday afternoon enjoyed a delightful outing at Wrightsville Beach. The party, eighty-one in number, occupied a special car of the Tidewater Power Company, leaving the city at 1 o'clock and returning at 8 o'clock last evening. The company of young people were in charge of their teachers and enjoyed every minute of their stay by the "sad sea waves."

Miss Doak Appears Tonight.

Miss Saba Doak, the gifted soprano of Tennessee who will appear at the Academy of Music tonight as a benefit for the City Baseball League, will arrive this afternoon from Columbia, S. C. In addition to the superb recital by Miss Doak there will be an elaborate programme of other numbers so that the event will be one of the musical treats of the year. Seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank George have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant, aged five months, which occurred at an early hour Sunday morning at their home Sixth and Swann streets. The remains were taken yesterday to Pender county for interment accompanied by the sorrowing parents and several friends.

ATTENTION VOTERS.

It having been circulated in the County that there is an agreement between Mr. John Haar and myself that if I should lose out on the first day I should throw my support to him in the second Primary or if he should lose out he would throw his support to me, I desire to say that I am running independent of any candidate; that there is no agreement or understanding between Mr. Haar and myself. All I ask is that you vote for me, and I shall be satisfied with the result of the election. HENRY HORNE.

No Use To Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive to day only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well Known Wilmington People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Wilmington the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

L. H. Partin, 7 South Fourth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy for the kidneys as I used them with satisfactory results. My back was very weak and lame and I was bothered by pains across my loins. The kidney secretions were highly colored, contained a sediment and were very painful in passage. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I concluded to give them a trial and bought a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. They acted just as represented and it was not long before I was relieved."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

—The April term of the Federal court was postponed by Judge Purnell, to convene May 4th, the same date of the holding of the regular term of the Superior court of Craven county. So there were two courts going on last week, at the same time. There was an unusually large docket. As usual there was a large number of cases of violation of the internal revenue law. Several cases of unusual interest were tried during the session.

—The Alumni Association of the High School will hold its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The Seniors will be admitted to this meeting.

couragement and patriotism as well as by their relentless efforts in supplying the army with the necessary clothing, kept the spark of hope burning and doubled the length of the conflict, while thousands of them suffered more than the man in the ranks. I have in mind a saintly woman, who at the beginning of the war had lost a husband and five children, leaving only three sons for her dependence and support. When the war opened these three sons at her suggestion and with her benediction volunteered in the army, and went to the front leaving their mother on the farm and in control of her faithful slaves. Each of these sons fell in battle and no more returned to receive the blessings awaiting them for their patriotic service, and after the war the mother supported herself on the farm with her old slaves as tenants and died twenty years afterwards, unconscious that she had contributed anything but the widow's mite to the cause of the Confederacy. This is only an instance of what all the women of the South did during the war between the States. In conclusion let me add that that generation has almost passed away and no Tennyson has arisen to sound their praises; no historian has recorded their deeds of valor and the battles which they fought are not named in the annals of the war; we have erected no marble shaft to point the present generation to the heroism of their mothers, but the record of their sacrifices has been written in the hearts of all the people of the South and can never be effaced from memory or tradition.

Do we, the present generation, measures up to the standard of manhood and womanhood of 1861 to 1865? Are the sons and daughters of the Confederacy as loyal to the institutions of the South as were their fathers and mothers? If not, then let us learn a lesson while we may from the thinning ranks of tthe Confederacy and let us follow the example so worthily set for us.

The roll of honored dead interred in Oakdale cemetery was then read after which "Cover Them With Beautiful Flowers" was rendered by the chorus. Then children during this singing placed flowers on the mound beneath and around the monument, this being a beautiful feature of the service.

The bestowal of Crosses of Honor upon the veterans whose names and commands were published a few days ago, was then observed by the Daughters of the Confederacy and the large audience stood and sang "Nearer My God To Thee," which with a benediction concluded the beautiful service with a blowing of taps and the firing of salutes by the military commands in attendance.

YOUNG WOMEN

Young women are often great sufferers for want of proper advice at just the right time.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., has always issued to young girls a special invitation to write to her about their sickness. She is a mother, and fully understands.

In nine chances out of ten your case will be just the same as those of the young ladies whose letters follow.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

is what you need to restore health.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, of Nelsonville, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"When I wrote to you I was very nervous, had dull headaches, backache, and was very irregular. Doctors did me no good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice made me regular, well and strong. I am now in better health than ever before."

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I am only sixteen years old, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice have cured me of sideache, periodic pains, and a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

BANK NOTES

The fact that this institution, starting at zero less than three years ago, has, in proportion to capital and surplus, built up a larger business than ever before shown by a National Bank in the South, argues what?

That its conservative policy and modern banking methods, combined with progressive public spirit and fair dealing with small as well as large accounts, is appreciated.

Perhaps you may have in mind opening an account or concentrating your business through a National Bank of strong resources and careful management.

Write or call to see us. We will be interested in going into the matter with you, whether business results or not.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 11.—The strength of July contracts was the feature in today's cotton market which was very active and nervous, with the close steady at a net advance of 14 to 34 points. Sales were estimated at 400,000 bales.

The market opened barely steady at a decline of 4 to 10 points and during the early trading sold 8 to 12 points net lower with July touching 9 cents and October 8.74 under disappointing cables favorable weather reports, scattering bear pressure and liquidation. But there was a good demand for July on the decline, presumably for the account of shorts, and after the first few minutes the market rallied sharply. New crops months followed the advance slowly but selling of these positions was checked by the strength of July and the whole list worked up to a net advance of 9 to 17 points. Following this there was a reaction under realizing but in the late trading the market developed renewed strength on reports of a tornado in Oklahoma with July selling at 9.45 or 37 points net higher and October at 9.03 or 17 points net higher. The close was only 2 or 3 points off from the top. At the high point July was 1 1-4c above the recent low record. There were hours during the day that July was practically cornered in all three of the big markets and reports from the south claimed that cotton could not be purchased in the interior for delivery on contract except at a loss. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-4c higher.

Receipts at the ports today 6,864 bales against 5,874 last week and 8,370 alst year. For the week 55,000 bales against 59,153 last week and 59,994 last year.

Cotton: Spot closed steady 25 points higher; middling uplands 10.90; middling gulf 11.15; sales 2,909 bales.

Futures opened barely steady and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 11.—There was an increased inquiry and movement in cotton goods today. Raw silk was steady but the demand was light. Revisions in the price of ginghams and an auction sale of wash goods were announced. The new fall prices for carpets which made public today are 7 1-2 per cent. below the prices of last season.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 11.—Speculative sentiment today was still under the influence of the brightened outlook for corporation financing which has been the ruling feature all through the present rise in stocks. The piling up of reserves and the declining rates for money promise abundant resources of further flotation of new capital issues and executive officers of the companies correspondingly relieved of the anxieties which enveloped them during the paralysis of the railroad credit.

Outside of the money outlook there was nothing in the days developments to prompt hopes of enhancing values. The committee car efficiency of the American Railway Association made another fortnightly report on the number of idle freight cars in the country which showed for April 29 an addition to the record figure of April 15, of 37,714 of freight cars held idle in this country. Railroad officials reported that no improvement was perceptible in the traffic showing.

The stock market showed new stocks being pushed upwards. There was heavy realizing at the same time in the recent leaders of the advance. The constant irregularity of tone was the consequence. The special strength of C. & O. and N. & W. was in connection with reports that the New Hanven was taking over the holdings of the former sold by the Pennsylvania with a view to safe-guarding its soft coal supply. Bonds were active and strong. Total sales $6,364,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 1,069,000 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, May 11.—Money on call easy 1 3-4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 1 3-4; closing bid 1 3-4; offered at 2. Time loans quiet and easy; sixty days 2 1-2 and ninety days 2 3-4 to 3 per cent., six months 3 1-2 to 3 3-4 per cent. THE RAYNER RESOLUTION

As to The President's Action Regarding The Punishment of Colonel Stewart.

THE DISCUSSION TODAY

Of the Resolution in the Senate—That Body Expected to Take Action Today—The Resolution Calls for All Facts in the Case.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, May 11.—Senator Rayney today introduced a resolution "authorizing the President to convene a court of inquiry" to consist of five officers of the army to investigate charges and accusations against Colonel William F. Stewart, of the army, who has been detailed to serve until retirement at the abandoned military post at Fort Grant, Arizona. Mr. Rayner will speak upon the resolution tomorrow. He gave notice that he expected the Senate to take action at that time.

The Colonel Stewart case is one of the subjects discussed by President Roosevelt in his recent letters to Senator Rayner and Senator Stewart of Vermont declaring that as commander in chief, the President is supreme in all matters pertaining to the army and navy.

The resolution by Senator Rayner declares in the preamble that charges and accusations have been filed with the President of the United States affecting the qualifications and status of Colonel Stewart as an officer and that he had not been served with a copy of the charges. It is pointed out that the officer on two occasions has asked for a court of inquiry and that his requests have been denied and that he has been without opportunity to defend himself against the "ex-parte accusations" in which he was assigned to a deserted post at Fort Grant, Arizona, without command, later transferred to a post without a command at St. Augustine, Fla., and recently ordered back to Fort Grant.

It is declared that this "punishment has been inflicted without Colonel Stewart having been afforded the slightest opportunity to secure information concerning the charges."

The resolution, if adopted, would compel the war department to produce all of the charges and accusations on file at the department and with President Roosevelt. The officer would have the authority to confront his accusers and to be represented at the court with counsel.

In addressing the Senate tomorrow Senator Rayner will confine his argument to the question of whether the President has the right to condemn an officer to punishment without the court of inquiry guaranteed to every officer by the articles of war. The President's letter to Senator Rayner, it is said, in several instances declares that the officer merited the "punishment" bestowed and shows that the President himself regards Stewart's exile as in the nature of "punishment."

CONGRESSMAN HEFLIN INDICTED.

For Assault with a Deadly Weapon on the Street Car Shooting.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 11.—The Federal Grand Jury today returned an indictment charging Representative J. Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, with assault with a deadly weapon. The indictment contains three counts, two of which relate to the assault on Lewis Lundy, a negro with whom Mr. Hefin has a dispute on a street car in this city on March 27 last. The third charges an assault on Thomas McCreery, of New York, a horse man who was standing on the sidewalk and was struck by a bullet from Mr. Heflin's pistol.

In the first count Mr. Heflin is charged with beating the negro on the head with the pistol. The second charges that he discharged the pistol causing the bullet to strike the negro. Lundy appeared before the Grand Jury but McCreery did not do so.

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS

Senate Passes Agricultural Appropriation Bill—Rayner Introduces His Stewart Resolution—Miscellaneous Business in House.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, May 11.—The Senate today passed the Agricultural Appropriation bill carrying an appropriation aggregating $12,142,146. For building roads and making other permanent improvements in the National forests $1,000,000 instead of $500,000, as provided by the House of Representatives, was provided, giving one-half the amount asked by the chief forester. The bill provides that 25 per cent of the income from the national forests shall be paid to the States in which they are located, this money to be expended for road and school improvements in the counties in which the preserves are situated. An amendment prohibits expenditures for the publication of an article in relation to the forestry service, but it is stipulated that this shall not prevent the service giving out information on any subject of public inierest.

Senator Rayner, Maryland, introduced a resolution providing for a court of inquiry to investigate the charges against Colonel William F. Stewart, U. S. A., now stationed by order of the President at Fort Grant, Arizona, and stated that he would speak on this subject tomorrow.

The conference report on the Naval Apropriation bill was agreed to.

Today was the 56th birthday of Vice President Fairbanks but he was not in the Senate, having gone to Chicago to deliver an address.

Senator Bailey, of Texas, made his first appearance in the Senate since the recent political contest in his State and was cordially received.

The Senate considered the Postoffice bill and at 5:12 o'clock P. M. adjourned.

House of Representatives.

The House today devoted its time to consideration of miscellaneous business. By agreeing to some Senate amendments to an unimportant local bill, upon which an anti-gambling provision was placed as a rider, the House took the final congressional step by which betting on horse races at Benning will hereafter be prohibited.

A bill authorizing the appointment, as an addition to the regular military establishment of fifty captains to command the Phillippine scouts, also was passed. Other bills which got through were as follows:

Amending the homestead laws so as to permit the entry of 320 acres instead of 160 of non-arable public lands in Western States and authorizing the drainage of certain lands in the Red Lake Indian reservation, Minnesota.

A bill allowing the States of Idaho and Wyoming two million additional acres of land for reclamation was defeated. At 5:07 o'clock P. M. the House adjourned until tomorroy at noon.

TWENTY-FIVE PERSONS INJURED.

By a Rear End Collision of An Elevated Road in New York.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, May 11.—Twenty-five persons were injured by an accident on the Third Avenue elevated road tonight. A southbound train was discharging passengers at 143rd street when another train bound in the same direction whirled around a curve, The motorman of the second train did not see the rear coach until he was almost upon it.

The force of the collision broke the windows of the colliding cars. Passengers were thrown from their seats to the floor, cut by flying glass. The trucks of the second train jumped the track and hung on the ties of the elevated structure. Terror-stricken passengers jerked open the car gates and men, women and children scrambled from the cars over the ties, braving the dangers of the third rail. Hurry calls were sent in for the police reserves, ambulances and the fire department. The fire companies hoisted their ladders to the side of the wrecked train and ambulance surgeons scaled up the rungs to attend the injured. Motorman Ammerman, of the second train, was found badly cut in the motor box and was placed under arrest. Traffic on the road was blocked on both tracks for over an hour. It is believed that the accident was due to a failure of the block signal system during the rush hour. None of the victims was considered seriously hurt.

MR. LIILEY'S REFUSAL

To Produce Letters Called For Laid Before House Committee.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, May 11.—Representative George L. Lilley of Connecticut, has refused to produce the letters called for by the special committee of the House that investigated the legislative methods of the Electric Boat Company, under a resolution introduced by him. This refusal came today in a letter addressed to Chairman Boutell from Mr. Lilley who is in Connecticut. The letter contained the statement that Mr. Lilley's refusal was based on the advice of counsel and with a full knowledge of the consequences the refusal may have. Mr. Lilley also inclosed a doctor's certificate to the effect that his health would not permit of his returning to Washington at this time.

The committee held an executive session today and worked on the report it will present to Congress. This report, which probably will be ready for submission the latter part of this week, will note the fact of Mr. Lilley's refusal to produce his letters and will leave to the House the question of determining what action shall be taken against him.

At a conference yesterday between the leaders of the House and Senate it practically was agreed that Congress shall adjourn Saturday May 23.

THE LA PORTE TRAGEDY

Still as Great a Mystery as When The Murders Were First Discovered.

NO CLUE IS YET FOUND

To the Evidences of the Many Murders Committed on the premises. Excavations Suspended—Sheriff at Work on Evidence.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

LaPorte, Ind., May 11.—Mrs. Belle Gunness' farm failed to reveal new mysteries, but progress was made towards solving the puzzles already involved in the homestead which has witnessed the tragic deaths of fourteen persons.

Heavy showers today made excavations impossible, but between down pours Sheriff Smutzer and Louis Schultz worked on the apparatus with which Schultz is to sluce ashes in the celler in the burned house. The heavier pieces of debris and the bricks were cleared from the south half of the basement and it is thought that the mining operations will start in earnest tomorrow. This operation is to be carried on to find evidence bearing on the identity of the woman's body found in the debris of the burned house and supposed to be that of Mrs. Gunness.

Dr. J. H. William Meyer sent to the coroner his findings resulting from the autopsies on the bodies supposed to be those of Andrew Helgellen, of Mansfield, S. D., and Jennie Olsen, the foster daughter of Mrs. Gunness who disappeared in 1906. Dr. Meyer reported that a mass of hair had been found in the clenched fist of Helgelein and that the fingers grasping it had been severed above the first phalanx.

Dr. Meyer's report on the bodies of Helgelein and Miss Olsen declared that both had met unnatural deaths. In the case of the young woman the condition of the corpse precluded any possibility of determining the manner in which she was murdered. There is not enough flesh left to show even evidence of wounds. The crumbling skull revealed none. Helgelein's body had been in the ground only a few months and it gave evidence of a death struggle. The clenched hand which contained hair had been mutilated and the other hand had been severed at the wrist. Of this body, the official report says:

"From the findings, it is evident that the man died an unnatural death, but at whose hands or how cannot be determined by the examination so far. The hair in the hand is likely from the head of his murderer."

ANOTHER FIRE IN ATLANTA

Number of Horses Burned—A Theatre Panic Narrowly Averted.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., May 11.—One hundred and seventy-five horses, two of them show prize winners, half a block of buildings burned with a hundred thousand dollar loss, a threatened panic in a crowded theatre nearby, and half a dozen persons injured, none seriously, summarizes a fire which tonight started in the business section of Atlanta and for an hour threatened to make a cleaner sweep than did the flames which last week destroyed a million and a quarter dollars worth of property in another section of the city. The block in which the fire started was made up chiefly of one story wooden and brick structures. The flames started in the Piedmont stables on Marietta street near Spring. Half a block away the Orpheum theatre was crowded with persons watching a vaudeville performance. Manager Kahn announced that owing to trouble in the gallery among negroes it had been decided to abandon the performance. As the audience started to leave some one ran through the lobby shouting "Fire." In another moment scores of men in the balcony began a rush for the exits. Fortunately cooler heads stopped this and no one was seriously hurt.

The fire spread from the stable to a number of one story buildings nearby and was stopped after a dozen of these had been burned.

"The Store That's Always Busy"

HOUR SALES

We desire to call your particular attention to the famous One Hour Sales we are conducting at our store during the May Bargain Week Sale now in progress. The bargains offered in these sales are extraordinary, and are well worth taking advantage of. From 10 to 11 o'clock this morning we offer an exceptionally good Talcum Powder at the remarkably low price of 7c per box. Limit of five boxes to a customer.

One of these hour sales will be held from 10 to 11 o'clock every day

"The Store That's Always Busy"

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

A glass of Pale Export beer is good for the nerves and many other disorders. A mild stimulant that is always beneficial and invigorating; not because it is beer alone, but because it is good beer, and containing the pure essence of malt and hops, properly brewed, matured and bottled by Darley, Park Brewing Co., under thorough sanitary conditions which makes it a beverage matchless in its wholesomeness.

STAR BUSINESS LOCALS

TO THE RESIDENTS of Wilmington in particular and all other nearby towns. I say, patronize your city chemist. Do not send your water or anything else to be analyzed to the State laboratory at Raleigh, when you can have it done at home, just as good and considerably quicker in few days against few weeks. My specialty is water, milk, beverages, urine and any kind of commercial products. My report of your analysis will tell you the truth, and nothing else but the truth, good or bad you shall know. My prices are reasonably consistent with honest and good work. A. N. Dubois, office and laboratory, Worth building, Room No. 2, Second floor, Wilmington, N. C. may 3-tu-thu-fri-su-1m

FOR RENT—My cottage on Wrightsville Beach. The same is located near Atlantic Yacht Club, contains seven rooms, exclusive of halls, kitchen and servants' house. It is furnished complete including China and linen. I will rent it reasonable for the season to any responsible party. John L. Casper, Winston-Salem, N. C., or Roanoke, Va. may 7-tf

GILBERT HOUSE—For good beds, all new, cool rooms, well screened, no mosquitoes during Summer, baths, electric lights; as good meals as market affords. A. M. Gilbert, corner Front and Princess streets, at car junction of street railway, Wilmington, N. C. mar 29 tf

THE LADIES of the Home Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will give an entertainment entitled "The Cradle Song of All Nations" in the Abbi Chadbourn Memorial Hall, Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of raising funds for the support of Immanuel Kindergarten. A liberal attendance is solicited. Admission 25 cents. may 8-9-12 3t
